

BEP in products, but you can calculate BEP in revenue dollars. 3-2. 3-12 What is . 3-12? 3-12 is the total number of units held by the company's assets minus the total number of units held by the company's liabilities. In other words, it is the amount of money in assets minus liabilities. This means that the company does not owe creditors a single additional unit to cover its obligations. This also means that the company does not owe a single extra unit to cover its profits. This means the company stays profitable
