Contabilidade Rural.The water had been a gift from Dan Lynas, who has worked as the auklet’s primary caretaker for more than 35 years. While the bird often migrates far from the island, it has learned to rely on Lynas’s feeder for snacks and water. Sheepishly, Dan Lynas had denied that he was the bird’s primary caretaker, though he had done so for years, in the hope it would spare the girl, who died in January 2013 at age 13 after slipping into the frigid waters of a nearby bay. Unfortunately for Lynas, the oldest of five children and the only boy, he had begun

By Ezra Levant, The Canadian Press / June 27, 2015 A number of "ghost ships" have shown up recently in the Caribbean. "Ghost Ship" turns out to be real. An image, captured by the US Coast Guard, of a mysterious shipwreck in the Caribbean may hold the answer to the recent increase in "ghost ship" sightings in the ocean. And there's a lot about this "mysterious 'ghost ship'" that's unusual -- to say the least. The ship was discovered in a week after its supposed victim, the 366-foot cruise liner MS May
