What initially started as a day hike, this 55 mile trail from Lake Hill-Scripps to Laguna Beach has quickly become one of the city's most challenging to complete. But now that the trail is open, it's making the city its new playground. On any given Saturday, you might find a group of college students heading north on the Laguna-Laguna Beach State Beach Trail, or kayakers practicing in the waters of the Big Corona Reservoir as the sound of fish slapping echoes throughout the canyon. But as the season ends and the weather gets colder, this area is more likely to be a place where snowshoers and skiers come to town, slalom skiers at Capistrano Mountain Resort near La Jolla and herds of ATV and dirt bike enthusiasts along El Camino Real as they head out for the weekend. The backcountry trails of San Diego are also the perfect place to go if you're looking to get away from it all - especially when the trails are draped with wildflowers. These are the best hikes in San Diego County and the hikes I recommend to you now..dir = "bin"
